

Community Voices

We are an active independent senior community for residents 55 and better. Our comfortable units are an ideal option for those who no longer want the responsibility and upkeep of a house but still desire privacy, security and independence. Our residents are part of an active, well-rounded community that provides a sense of self, well-being and inclusion. Friendship, fun and a caring staff provide our residents peace of mind.

It's the spontaneous stuff that's the best part of living here!

You would be surprised what goes on here!
We still have a lot of life in us yet! We tell jokes, we talk about what's happening in our lives, we talk about our kids. We share... It's up to you what you want to do with your life. It's no different than being a teenager and having choices. We have choices, too! It depends what you want to do with your life...”

- Ken from Berkshire at Grafton

PEACE of MIND

I've been telling everyone: Move in! People stay in their homes and try and take care of things even though they shouldn't be. They do it because they're afraid they won't be comfortable. They think they need all this space and all these things. But, they don't know how good it can be to let go! You don't have to do anything but enjoy! If anything goes wrong, you just call maintenance and they take care of it. No maintenance, no shoveling. Think about it!

I've been here eight years already. I have some very good friends now. We go shopping together and get out and do lunch. If you want to meet people, you can. Some people like to keep to themselves and that's fine. We're all different. Some are quiet, some are outgoing. I like getting out. I'm not much for sitting. I like moving around. I'm an active, independent senior citizen.

ALIVE with ACTIVITY

What does it mean to thrive in your golden years? Can you do it alone? The Rush Alzheimer's Disease Center in Chicago recently completed a study showing that seniors with high levels of social activity have about half the rate of cognitive decline as those with low levels of social activity. The prescription? Physical exercise, coupled with deep social connections and a commitment to taking care of one another. Berkshire promotes an active, engaged environment where residents can age not just gracefully, but with vitality.

LUXURY
AFFORD

The Berkshire at Muskegon is an affordable housing community with comfortable units for seniors of all incomes. But you won't notice any difference between our property and high priced senior housing costing much more. We tap into unique funding that allows us to provide high quality units with great amenities at a price you can afford. Please contact our leasing agent to discuss your specific situation and how you might qualify for a reduced rent unit.

table

Enjoy our custom-designed Community Table, where the coffee is always on and residents can read the paper, share stories and catch up on the latest community news. Participate in one of our many clubs and interest groups that meet in our public areas and conference rooms. Enjoy a movie, a lecture by a local historian or wellness expert. Perhaps chair yoga is your style? How and when you decide to participate is up to you.

It's like an extended family here. We really care about each other. We look out for each other. It's really pretty amazing when you think about it.

The thing I enjoy most about living at the Berkshire is the PEOPLE who live here. We just have a wonderful group of people living here. I have lots of friends; I'm active in a lot of things. We've just always been very much a part of the community.

LIVING downtown MUSKEGON

The Berkshire is located right downtown at First and Clay. The Farmer's Market is just a block away. The Muskegon Museum of Art is a block in the other direction. And you must take in a show at the Frauenthal Center... living downtown is fun and convenient!

WALKING around TOWN

Walkable neighborhoods are a key to a healthier and more sustainable lifestyle. The Berkshire enjoys a Walk Score of 82, which makes our location "very walkable" with most of your daily needs within walking distance. Get out and enjoy your neighborhood and stay healthy doing it.
